

Spring 2008
The Total ASU Graduation Experience
Different Ceremonies, Both Important Experiences

Commencement

May 8, 2008

Wells Fargo Arena, ASU's Tempe Campus

7:00 a.m. - Motor Coach Boarding at the West campus

7:30 a.m. - Celebratory Breakfast

9:00 a.m. - Commencement Ceremony Begins

12:00 p.m. (approximate) - Motor Coaches return to West campus

Commencement is a special, university-wide celebration and the official graduation ceremony at which the President of Arizona State University confers degrees upon graduating students. Graduates, faculty and staff from all colleges, and all four ASU campuses, participate in the University Commencement.

Graduates and their family and friends are also invited to attend a congratulatory breakfast from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. at Frank Kush Field in Sun Devil Stadium. An online RSVP link is available at <http://www.asu.edu/ssc/commence/>.

ASU's West campus has chartered motor coaches to transport graduates and members of their families to the Commencement Ceremony in Tempe (free of charge!). This service is a gift from the campus to our graduates. RSVP to (602) 543-6327 for the motor coach service.

Questions regarding the Commencement Ceremony may be directed to the Office of University Ceremonies at (480) 965-3565.

Convocation

College of Teacher Education and Leadership

May 9, 2008

Maricopa County Events Center, Sun City West

9:00 a.m. - Graduate Check-in

10:00 a.m. - Convocation Ceremony Begins

The culminating graduation event for our college is the Convocation ceremony, a celebratory ceremony in which graduates are individually recognized for their educational achievements by the college dean and department chairs. Graduates' names are called, they walk across the stage, and receive their diplomas.

Please call (602) 543-6327 with questions regarding the Convocation ceremony.
